MAWL

A SIMPLE PATH FOR TRAINING DISCIPLES LIKE JESUS

WATCH RESPONSIBILITY MOVE

from the disciple-maker to the disciple

> "Everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher."
> LUKE 6:40

THE GOAL: A DISCIPLE WHO CAN TRAIN OTHERS

HOW TO USE MAWL

Do not just pass on information. Pass on a way of life.

1 MODEL

I do. You watch.

Mark 3:14 | Luke 6:40

Invite the disciple close enough to see the skill and the life behind it. Explain what you are doing, but let your example carry the lesson. Modeling requires authenticity and unhurried time together.

ASK: Can this person clearly see what faithful practice looks like in my life?

2 ASSIST

I do. You help.

Mark 6:35-44

Keep primary responsibility, but give the disciple a meaningful part. Jesus multiplied the bread and gave it to the disciples to distribute. Participation turns an observed idea into guided experience.

ASK: What real part of this ministry can I let the disciple do with me?

3 WATCH

You do. I coach.

Luke 9:1-10

Transfer the task while remaining close enough to observe, encourage and correct. Jesus sent the Twelve, then listened when they returned. Watch includes preparation before and debriefing afterward.

ASK: What feedback would help this disciple grow without taking the task back?

4 LAUNCH

You do. I trust.

Matthew 28:18-20

Release responsibility when the disciple can faithfully practice and pass on the skill. Launch does not mean leaving the relationship. It means you no longer need to supervise this particular task.

ASK: Is this disciple ready to do this independently and teach it to someone else?

USE MAWL WITH ANY SKILL: quiet time, gospel, prayer, Bible study or leading a group.
